Travel Tips

June 2007 — New passport exception
The State Department issued an exception to passport requirements for travel between the United States and Canada, Mexico, the Caribbean and Bermuda.

If you have applied for, but not yet received your passport, you can travel to and from Canada, Mexico, the Caribbean and Bermuda through September 30, 2007 as long as you show:

* a government issued ID
* Birth certificate
* Department of State official proof of application for a passport

Check with the State Department for more information.
